

COAL LID IS VITAL: WILSON

CAN'T QUIT NOW, LLOYD GEORGE INFORMS LABOR

Germans Have Made No Offer Which Has Justice.

(By Cable to The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Jan. 18.—Premier Lloyd George, appealing to the final conference of the trades unions in behalf of the high power bill, passed by the commons, tonight restated in definite terms the war aims of the entente nations and the United States.

His appeal was that the trades unions submit to the bill and help the making of more men. For any one case to refuse service at the front he said would be a violation of the spirit of democracy and a desertion of the men who have risked their lives for three years.

The premier said his recent statement concurred with the program announced by President Wilson. All classes of all democracies support him. Any yielding would be only submission to the demands of autocracy.

Must Go On or Go Under.

A few quotations from Mr. Lloyd George's address will carry the whole meaning of his war aims:

"If any man can find an honorable, equitable, and just way out of this conflict without fighting it through, heaven's sake, let him tell me. My own conviction is that the people must go on or go under."

"Germany always has been the peace at her own price, but that is a price that we are not prepared to pay. The moment the Germans show a disposition to negotiate a peace on equitable terms—and they are the terms the Labor party itself has adopted—there will be no reluctance to enter peace negotiations."

"Every Term Will Fail."

"If we are not able to defeat the German forces, is there any man here who believes that one of your terms—the least of them—would be enforced? I am talking about the moderate demands of the most pacifist souls in this assembly. Try to cash that check at the Hindenburg bank! It will be returned dishonored."

"We demanded the restoration of Belgium. What is the answer from Germany? It came from Von Tripitz's soul. Never. When I suggested that Mesopotamia and Palestine should never be restored to the Turk what was the answer of Germany? 'We will go on until they are restored.'"

"There has been no civilian answer from Germany at all. The answer that is to be given to civilization is an answer from the cannon's mouth."

No Alternative Left.

After thanking the labor representatives for the spirit in which they had met the government, the premier said there was no alternative to calling on the union men except either by raising the military age or of sending wounded men back and back again to the firing line.

As to the urgency of raising more men, Mr. Lloyd George said that he and his colleagues, who are on the watch tower, could not deny it, and that the need should be urgent they would not have brought forward the demand now.

"There are men who thought it should have been done before," Mr. Lloyd George said. "There are men who believe we ought to do it on a much more sweeping scale. There are a few who say we ought not to do it at all, and there are some who say both things simultaneously."

Act Only to Meet Need.

"The government's view is this: It would be folly to withdraw men from the industries one hour sooner, than the need arose. On the other hand, it would be treason to the state, treason to our country, to democracy, and to the cause of freedom if, when the need arises, we had not made the demand."

"I assume that all of you here in your hearts believe that the war aims declared by that great labor conference represent the minimum of justice which you can possibly accept as a settlement of this terrible dispute."

"If we are not able to defeat the German forces, if we are not able to bring the military power of Prussia, if there any man here in the possession of his wits who believes that one of your terms—the least of them—would be enforced?"

"I am not talking about the demands of the imperialists; I am not talking about the demands of the extreme war party."

EXTRA Doane Driver Is Shot Down by Auto Thief

Dr. Philip Schuyler Doane's chauffeur, Rudolf Wolfe, was shot and probably fatally wounded early this morning by Earle Dear, one of the city's most notorious automobile thieves.

Dear was attempting to steal Dr. Doane's machine when Wolfe ran out from a restaurant at North Avenue and La Salle street, sprang on the running board, and attempted to stop the machine. He was shot twice.

Dear has a long police record. He was indicted as the "brains" of a gang of automobile thieves and was sentenced to a year in the bridewell for the theft of an automobile.

Jury Saves Him from Pen.

He was saved from a term in the penitentiary only by the action of the jury, which fixed the value of a stolen car at $10, thus minimizing the crime.

Dear was captured and so was Eugene Hartnett, who was with him when he attempted to drive away in Dr. Doane's machine. Hartnett is said also to have a record.

At the Henrotin hospital, where Wolfe was taken, it was found that one bullet had entered his stomach and the other had plowed through both his lungs.

Identifies the Two Men.

Before he became unconscious he identified Dear as the man who had shot him and Hartnett as the other man who had attempted to steal the car. It was said Wolfe would not survive the night.

The police pieced together his story, told with great difficulty because of his weakened condition. He had taken the doctor home to 1427 North State street, he said, and was on his way to a garage when he stopped at the restaurant. He did not see them enter the car, but he recognized the sound of the motor and ran out to find the car rolling away.

Wolfe lives at 2051 Bissell street.

Judge Calls Down Lawyer for Making Faces in Court

"You'll have to stop making faces in my court," said Federal Judge Carpenter yesterday, addressing Attorney George W. Brown, one of several attorneys wrangling over a suit. "If it occurs again you'll have to step out. Now I demand an apology."

Attorney Brown apologized.

LATE NEWS BULLETINS

PARIS, Jan. 18.—After violent scenes in the chamber of deputies today confidence was voted in the government by a large majority. The debate was heated and resulted in a temporary suspension of the sitting. After the session Deputy Conti challenged two other deputies.

PETROGRAD, Thursday, Jan. 17.—Barricades were put up today about the telephone station and at other strategic points and thousands of soldiers and sailors were brought into Petrograd to reinforce the Bolshevik troops in dealing with possible riots at the opening of the constituent assembly tomorrow.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—Sheffield correspondents describe the feeling against the government as running strong in that industrial center. The Daily News reports that the talk among the younger Unionists goes as far as to threaten to throw down their tools if peace negotiations are not begun at the end of the month.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—King Ferdinand of Roumania, whose arrest had been ordered by the Bolshevik government, is now under the protection of the allies, according to a Petrograd dispatch to the Daily Express.

It is probable that the king has sought refuge in one of the allied embassies at Jassy, or it may be that the king has been taken to Saloniki by airplane.

UNIFIED RULE IN WAR URGED BY CONGRESS

Bills May Be Rushed to Force Control by One Body.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—With the workless day order and the recently disclosed inefficiency of war department bureaus, regarded by congress as evidence that President Wilson's war making organization is unequal to the task, the senate committee on military affairs proposed today a program of drastic reorganization. Here are the major proposals:

The creation of a war cabinet charged with the supreme management of the war under the direction of the president and paramount in authority to the war and navy departments and all other departments, administrators, commissions, boards, and other agencies now dealing with war activities.

The creation of a director of munitions, charged with the purchase and production of all arms and other munitions for both the army and navy and responsible only to the war cabinet and the president.

Bills Ready for Senate.

The senate committee completed bills embodying both of these proposals. It is not unlikely that both measures will be carried through congress on the way of indignation aroused by the workless day order.

To official management of the war supply ever since last summer is attributed the situation which impeded the administration to shut down industry and the conviction is growing that congress must take a decided hand in affairs and force a reorganization which will bring order out of chaos and put punch in the war effort.

Even Democrats Join.

The accession of numerous Democrats to the ranks of those pronouncing the workless day order "a confession of incompetency" resulted in producing a unanimous vote in the senate military affairs committee for the bill creating a super war cabinet. This bill had been hanging fire in the committee with several Democrats opposed to it, until the meeting this morning.

When the committee met it was found that the members were unanimously in favor of reporting the war cabinet bill to the senate. Then the members went a step further to manifest their displeasure with the administration. The bill, as it stood last night, provided for a super war cabinet of five members, including the secretary of war and the secretary of the navy. The committee almost without discussion eliminated both secretaries from the proposed body.

Hope for Wilson Support.

The bill, as finally approved, was ordered reported to the senate at the next session on Monday. In the meantime it will be submitted to Secretary of War Baker with the intention of having him lay it before the president.

It is hoped by both Republican and Democratic members of the committee that the president will approve the measure and assist in its passage by congress. Secretary of War Baker was sounded tonight on the matter by a Democratic member of the committee, who reported that the secretary shows signs of receding from his opposition to the reorganization program.

If the president should endorse the proposed legislation its immediate passage by congress will be the result. The belief that he will endorse the war cabinet and munitions director bills is founded, it appears, upon information reaching the capitol that the president has in a greatly alarmed by the outburst of indignation against the workless day order.

Superior to All Forces.

The bill as perfected by the committee provides for the creation of a war cabinet of three members, none of whom shall be a member of the president's regular cabinet. The measure provides that the members of the war cabinet shall be members of provided capacity for the handling of large affairs and that the appointees of the president to this body shall be confirmed by the senate.

The war cabinet would be superior to all other agencies of the government for the conduct of the war. It would consist virtually of three managers of the war machine who will give orders to the secretary of war, the secretary of the navy, the shipping

JENTEEL JESSE FLEES RUDENESS IN NOTHING FLAT

Rough Writ Server Is a Bully, Complains the Champion.

One thing a man is entitled to—respect, cultured, well bred approach. Now, take the case of Jess Willard. Last night a deputy sheriff went to his house at 1447 Pratt boulevard, Rogers Park. He had a summons to serve in a matter of a suit for $25,000 against Mr. Willard, the complainant considering himself inconvenienced in the matter of some broken ribs and other odds and ends.

"I walked up to the house," said Charles W. Peter, who is chief deputy sheriff, "and, thinks I, by George, that's Jess sitting in the window. You see, the curtain was up and I could see real plain. I rapped at the door."

Faster Than Light.

"Now I claim Willard must be faster than any contrivance ever invented for speed. They tell me that light travels several million miles a minute. Old stuff. The door was opened and I inquired politely if Mr. Willard was in. 'No, sir,' says the lady, 'he's in Texas.'"

"I claim no light ever went that fast. But just that minute I see Jess going south. At the rate he was going if he wasn't in Texas it looked like he might soon be here. Jess maybe can't fly, but I bet he can catch birds."

Mr. Willard, in one of his characters as proprietor of a circus, employed a number of wrestlers, among them Messrs. "Steve" Savage and "Tex" Dowd. Mr. Dowd alleges he was flattered into engaging in the lists with Mr. Savage, with the suggestion that he would find pleasant and trifling employment in tussling Mr. Savage about in a light and frivolous fashion. It was not until later he discovered his error. He suffered two broken ribs and some additional items of mayhem. He seeks to reimburse himself through Mr. Willard.

Poor Jess Bullied.

Perhaps having returned from Texas by the return wind, Mr. Willard was found in a cafe at Broadway and Devon avenue by Deputy Sheriff Edward O'Donnell. Mr. O'Donnell served the summons.

"I wouldn't do ducked out," said Mr. Willard, "but I won't stand for being bulldozed by a deputy sheriff. That first deputy tried to bulldoze me."

"I wasn't going to let O'Donnell serve it, either, but he acted so different from his boss that I stepped out and told him to read the paper. He appeared to be a gentleman."

Mr. Peters, who is 50 years old and may be termed somewhat abundant physically, denied he was curt or ungentle.

"No deputy is more polite and gentlemanly than I," said he. "And, besides, who wants to make faces at a lion?"

To NEWS DEALERS and CARRIERS:

The Fuel administration last evening gave out this order:

"Vending and distribution of newspapers is authorized."

Under this rule drug stores, food stores and other shops that are legally open on Monday are authorized to sell newspapers.

Distributors of newspapers are also authorized to heat their places of business.

GIVE UP HUNT FOR PRETTIEST GIRL IN U. S.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—The proposed nationwide hunt for the prettiest girl in the United States was of short duration.

Within a few hours after it was announced today by the soldiers' and sailors' campaign council leaders in the movement discovered they would not have sufficient time to pass on the hundreds of pictures expected in the contest, and the plans were canceled.

The portrait of the girl adjudged the most beautiful was to have been displayed on posters advertising government voluntary insurance for soldiers.

NO FUND TO PAY IDLE ARMY TO CLEAR STREETS

At a special meeting of the state council of defense yesterday the question of finding useful work for Chicago's idle army was taken up without definite result. It was agreed that the greatest need confronting the city at this time was clearing the streets, but it developed that there appeared to be no available funds for paying the men.

Without organized direction it was pointed out that little could be accomplished in removing the snow.

The railroad reported their yards were already cleared. Several hundred men, it was said, may find employment cutting ice.

U. S. to Let Theaters Open Mondays, New York Report

New York, Jan. 18.—A morning paper will say tomorrow that it has information from Washington that an order will be issued allowing theaters to remain open Mondays. To compensate for the concession they will have to remain closed some other day of the week.

GARFIELD GETS FULL O. K. FROM NATION'S CHIEF

Public Urged to Accept Ruling to Help Country.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—President Wilson tonight issued the following statement in support of Fuel Administrator Garfield's order to check industry east of the Mississippi:

I was, of course, consulted by Mr. Garfield before the fuel order of yesterday was issued and fully agreed with him that it was necessary, much as I regretted the necessity.

This war calls for many sacrifices, and sacrifices of the sort called for by this order are infinitely less than sacrifices of life which might otherwise be involved.

Must Send Ships Away.

It is absolutely necessary to get the ships away, it is absolutely necessary to relieve the congestion at the ports and upon the railways, it is absolutely necessary to move great quantities of food, and it is absolutely necessary that our people should be warned in their homes if nowhere else, and half-way measures would not have accomplished the desired ends.

If action such as this had not been taken, we should have limped along from day to day with a slowly improving condition of affairs with regard to the shipment of food and of coal, but without such immediate relief as had become absolutely necessary because of the congestions of traffic which have been piling up for the last few months.

Expects Public to Obey.

I have every confidence that the results of action of this sort will justify it and that the people of the country will loyally and patriotically respond to the necessities of this kind as they have to every other sacrifice involved in the war.

We are upon a war footing, and I am confident that the people of the United States are willing to observe the same sort of discipline that might be involved in the actual conflict itself.

GAS MASKS FOR PERSHING MEN NO USE, PAPER SAYS

Providence, R. I., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The Providence Journal will say tomorrow morning:

"Additional evidence of shocking incompetence in the purchase of supplies for the war department has just come to light. Over 200,000 gas masks manufactured in this country for the use of our troops abroad have been sent back to the United States by American army officers in France as being absolutely worthless for the purpose for which they were intended."

"Every gas mask now being used by our troops on the western front has been borrowed from either the British or French war department."

"The masks were ordered by the war department with the full knowledge of the latest developments in German, French, and British masks, samples of which were in the hands of the department when the order was accepted and the finished product passed as satisfactory."

Seize Wealth of American Women Married to Aliens

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The holdings in the United States of Countess Lasko Stecheny, who was Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, valued at $3,975,000, representing stocks and bonds and interest in her father's estate, has been taken over by A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian.

He also has seized the interests of Countess Anton Sigray, formerly Miss Harriot Daly, sister-in-law of James W. Gerard. Her holdings in this country are estimated at more than $2,000,000.

It is estimated that the possessions of American women married to aliens which will come into the hands of Mr. Palmer will reach $20,000,000.

Tenants, Cold, Complain; Flat Owner Seeks Death

Bernard Simon, 63 years old, was found unconscious late last night in a gas filled room at 3645 West Harrison street. He was removed to the county hospital, where his condition is said to be serious. The police believe he attempted to commit suicide while dependent over inability to furnish enough heat to satisfy tenants in his two-story flat building at 3645-47 West Harrison street.

CHICAGO OBEYS COAL RULE; SEE SOME RELIEF

Big Mills to Reopen; Business May Run If Cold?

Chicago's first day's encounter with the "silent factory" order was a demonstration of the city's patriotic acquiescence. Thousands of factories, big and little, shut down for the day and will remain closed again today.

There was absorbing interest in the plans for Monday's more general shutdown—in the modifications, exemptions, alterations, and explanations which trickled out through the afternoon and evening.

Only one case of wilful violation of yesterday's coalless order reached the attention of the federal investigators. That was a small tailor shop. It was quickly whisked into line.

Big Steel Mills to Reopen.

Optimism increased with the receipt of news that Washington had decreed that certain big plants making munitions or producing foodstuffs in the Chicago district could continue to operate. This will permit thousands of men to return to work today. The larger steel plants will operate as usual today.

Word also came from Washington that the fuel administration had decided to take under consideration the appeal of department stores in Chicago and New York to open six days a week with shortened hours, thus accomplishing the required saving of one day's fuel supply, and even more, but not necessitating the closing of the stores on Mondays.

There was evidence at the depots and in the yards of the railroads that the shutdown was having a good effect toward the accumulation of coal and the clearing out of congested freight.

Stores Open, If Cold?

Unofficially, a modified interpretation of the Monday fuel order was given last night by Earl Dean Howard, deputy fuel administrator for Illinois. It will be considered this morning by State Administrator John E. Williams and his advisory committee.

If it is sanctioned officially and issued as the formal ruling of the administrator the regulations concerning offices, wholesale and retail establishments, and places of amusement will be much less stringent than has been understood generally.

Mr. Howard's point is that the second part of the coal saving program—set forth in section 4 of the Garfield order—does nothing more than prohibit the use of fuel to heat the places enumerated except to the extent "essential to prevent injury to property from freezing." Several rulings have been made that this will permit heating premises in these cases up to 45 degrees.

May Keep Open If Heated.

Thus, the new interpretation continues, buildings not used for manufacturing purposes, but classified under section 4, may remain open with the heat on to a limited extent, may use their lights and may even operate their elevators.

The language of the Garfield order lists them as follows:

A—Business or professional offices.

B—Wholesale or retail stores, or any other stores, business houses or business buildings.

C—Theaters, moving picture houses, bowling alleys, billiard rooms, private or public dance halls or any other place of public amusement.

The new interpretation also would permit saloons or other places where liquor is sold to operate on Monday if they were not heated at all.

It also would repeal the order prohibiting drug stores, which under the Garfield order may be heated to a normal extent, from selling anything but medical and surgical supplies.

Mr. Howard's View.

Deputy Administrator Howard said: "On account of the thousands of questions showing the pressing necessity for immediate rulings, in order to get people out of their perplexities, which came before the big committee, it was inevitable that rulings should be made which would be found inconsistent with the order issued by Dr. Garfield."

"Closer study of the order reveals the fact that the restrictions on Monday do not require the closing of any building, but do provide that no fuel

WHEELER LISTS
FOOD CONCERNS
WHICH MAY OPEN

Illinois Administrator Defines Operation of Industries.

The Illinois food administrator issued a statement yesterday at the request of the fuel administration defining the operation of food industries during the five day and ten Monday holidays declared by the fuel administration at Washington. Harry A. Wheeler, the local administrator, said he had done his best to formulate the statement to comply with the spirit of the order suspending the operation of manufacturing plants. The following may operate as usual:

- Flour mills.
- Grain elevators.
- Packing houses.
- Canneries.
- Food mills.
- Milk processors and dealers.
- Baking houses—wholesale and retail.
- Baking powder manufacturers.
- Fertilizer manufacturers.
- Macaroni and spaghetti manufacturers.
- Manufacturers and refiners of vegetable oils, substitutes for lard and other animal fats.
- Wholesale dealers in perishable goods, being only poultry, butter, eggs, fruits, vegetables, fresh fish.

Special Departments Open.

Regarding special departments of these industries permitted to operate as usual, the statement reads:

"Special departments producing machinery, etc., shall only operate in so far as that production is absolutely necessary to maintain milling production and distribution or repair for operation mills now closed down."

"Bleeding twine mills may continue operation, but no cordage departments other than twine shall be operated."

"Manufacturers of glass, metal, cloth, paper, wood, and earthenware containers are permitted to operate for the manufacture of containers for essential food products only."

"Wholesale and retail stores whose principal business is in foods are required at 12 o'clock on fuelless Mondays to reduce temperature to not exceed 45 degrees Fahrenheit. There is not anything in this ruling which would prevent trading after 12 o'clock on fuelless Mondays in such stores provided temperature did not exceed 45 degrees Fahrenheit. Mail order houses serving the consumer only are permitted to operate their food distributing departments in like manner."

Roasters of Coffee.

"Roasters of coffee and substitutes therefor shall be affected by fuel administration order only as follows: Roasting plants shall remain entirely closed on Mondays, Jan. 21, 23, Feb. 4, 11, 18, 25, March 4, 11, 18, and 25; shall close at 4 p. m. on Tuesday, Jan. 22, and at 12:30 p. m. on Saturdays beginning Jan. 19 to March 23, inclusive."

"Manufacturers and packers of jams, jellies, preserves, sirups, molasses, dried fruits, nut products, flavoring extracts, spices, pickles, olives, mustards, and all other condiments and relishes may operate to finish goods now in process, but must not start processing any of these commodities until Wednesday morning, Jan. 24. Where commodities in process can be finished on Saturday, Jan. 19, manufacturing operations shall cease until the morning of Jan. 23, and thereafter manufacturing operations shall be closed down on Mondays, Jan. 21, 23, Feb. 4, 11, 18, 25, March 4, 11, 18, and 25, inclusive. On days when plant is closed temperature not exceeding 45 degrees Fahrenheit may be maintained as a protection to stocks on hand."

HOTELS BAR LIQUOR.

An executive committee, representing the Hotel Men's association of Chicago, went on record yesterday in support of the edict of the federal fuel administration.

"We will obey the law to the letter," said A. J. Arroll, secretary.

According to instructions sent out to members last night, all bars connected with hotels will be closed every Monday throughout the ten week period. Restaurants will be operated as usual, but no liquor will be served.

Hotel Laundries Shut.

Hotel laundries will likewise be shut down. Extra linen will be provided in advance.

So far as saloons are concerned, according to M. J. McCarthy, secretary of the Retail Liquor Dealers' association, fuelless Mondays will be the same as Sunday.

The official action of the Retail Liquor Dealers' association does not compel compliance by such saloonkeepers as may choose to keep their places of business open at a temperature of 45 degrees.

Further assurance that the town will approach a state of absolute dryness was given by Louis Legner, president of the Chicago Brewers' association.

"No beer will be manufactured or delivered during the ten Mondays," he said. "We also propose to make every effort to stop deliveries by the proprietors of private beer routes who supply the 'home trade.'"

Mr. Thompson has no authority to close the saloons during the coalless days, according to an opinion given by Assistant Corporation Counsel Chester E. Cleveland yesterday. The opinion was a reply to an appeal made by the Rev. Philip Yarrow of the Chicago Dry Federation.

Parks and Playgrounds

Exempt from Fuel Order

Parks and playgrounds will be affected by the fuel order, it was announced by Administrator Durham yesterday. A protest had been voiced in a meeting in the Women's City club over which Miss Neva Boyd, state director of recreational work, woman's committee, Council of National Defense, presided.

It was further suggested that all persons make an effort to spend as much time as possible in the open air which may be rendered less liable to frost and also more liable to withstand lower temperatures.

"A Go to the Parks Monday" campaign also was inaugurated.

Open; Fuel Is 400
Cars Short.

Reports by the railroads yesterday on the movement of coal and the closing of lines were encouraging and indicated that the majority of the roads will be operating on normal schedules within a day or two. These reports were made on the provision that no more severe storms interfere.

Raymond E. Durham, chairman of the Cook county committee of the fuel administration, reported last night that 1,605 carsloads of coal had been received in Chicago during the preceding twenty-four hours. During the day 673 cars were placed on tracks for unloading. 139 were placed in yards and 537 were unloaded. In railroad yards there are 2,095 cars that have not been switched.

During the twenty-four hours ending Thursday midnight 1,545 cars of fuel were hauled into the city by the various railroads. These consisted of 1,438 carsloads of soft coal, 129 cars of hard coal, and 75 cars of coke. The average daily receipt of coal under normal conditions is about 2,000.

Of the soft coal received 272 cars were distributed among industrial plants. 673 were placed on team tracks, and 139 cars were switched into coal yards, making 1,080 cars spotted.

Direct to Consignees.

None of the coal handled Thursday was pooled, all being switched direct to the consignees.

"From now on coal will be handled and switched the same as prior to the storm," J. W. Higgins, chairman of the Railroad General Managers' association, said. "From 4,000 to 5,000 cars of coal are within easy reach of Chicago and all that remains is to haul it in. The roads are getting their tracks fairly clear and we expect to be back to normal by tomorrow or next day."

A report received by Mr. Higgins said that the mines were operated at about 60 per cent of their capacity yesterday.

One of the most welcome pieces of news received by coal dealers and industrial plants was the announcement by the Chicago, Terre Haute and Southern railroad that it had suggested in clearing its line to Topeka.

CANAL POWER
USERS ALLOWED TO OPEN PLANTS

A request by the federal fuel administration that users of electric energy generated by the Chicago sanitary district remain closed during the five day coalless period was rescinded yesterday.

Following a long distance telephone conference between Trustee Fred D. Breit and Administrator Garfield, an announcement was made from the office of the sanitary trustees that factories using hydro-electric power exclusively may continue to operate as usual.

Mr. Garfield explained that his ruling applies to those plants which do not require the supplementary use of coal in their manufacturing processes. President Sergei said.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—Director General McAdoo announced tonight appointment of a railroad wage commission of four public men to analyze and recommend action on all wage and labor questions pending before the government railroad administration, including the railway brotherhoods' demands.

At the same time the director general put into effect a new system of government railroad administration by dividing the country into three operating regions, east, south, and west, and placed a railroad executive at the head of each as his representative.

The wage commission consists of Secretary Lane, Interstate Commerce Commissioner C. C. McChord, Judge J. Harry Covington, chief justice of the District of Columbia Supreme court, and William R. Wilcox, who tonight announced his resignation as chairman of the Republican national committee.

It was planned originally to pass only on the four brotherhoods' wage demands, but so many other labor questions have been submitted to the director general since then that he determined to refer them all to the board. It will hear all labor complaints or petitions, make careful investigations, and recommend a course of action to Mr. McAdoo.

The commission's inquiry will deal with general conditions affecting railway employees, regardless of whether any specific request or complaint has been made to the director general or to the railroad management before the government assumed control.

In charge of eastern railroads Mr. McAdoo retained A. H. Smith, president of the New York Central, who has acted as assistant to the director general, with headquarters in New York.

R. H. Aishton, president of the Chicago and Northwestern, was appointed regional director for territory west of the Mississippi, with headquarters at Chicago. Southeastern roads were assigned to C. H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central, with headquarters at Atlanta.

"Orders issued by the gentlemen named in their capacity as regional directors will be issued by authority of the director general and will be respected accordingly," says "General Order No. 4," establishing the operating regions.

Explaining the purpose of the wage commission, Mr. McAdoo said:

"The commission has been appointed with a view to determining the wages for the different classes of labor upon the railroads. It will begin its work at once and will report to the director general, giving its recommendations in general terms as to changes that should be made. Upon this report the director general will make a decision."

President Wilson sent the following letter to each member of the commission:

"May I not assure you of my appreciation of your acceptance of the invitation extended to you by the director general of railroads to serve as a member of the important commission he has appointed to inquire into the question of wages of railroad employees?"

Mr. Wilcox in announcing his acceptance and resignation from the Republican national committee said:

"I feel that the nature of the work is such and the importance of it so great that in the performance of my duties no one should be able to interfere or suggest that there are any political considerations involved, as some might do if I remained chairman of the national committee."

TOLD BY "TRIBUNE."

Both President Aishton and President Markham were notified of their appointment last night by Tug Tansu.

"I had not heard of my appointment," Mr. Aishton said. "I am a drafted man and am already in the service of the government. I will serve to the best of my ability."

"My appointment came to me," Mr. Markham said. "Yes, I shall accept, but I do not know what I am to do."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—After tentatively turning down a proposal of Chicago department stores to keep open on the ten fuelless Mondays, but maintain shorter hour schedules on other days, the fuel administration took up the matter for further consideration today when New York joined Chicago in the compromise proposal.

Dr. Garfield said his attention had not been called to the Chicago request, but that, without specific knowledge of the nature of the request, he was inclined to believe no exception could be made for the State street stores. Other fuel officials said, however, that requests for modifications had come first from Chicago and later from New York and the administration had decided to consider these cases, reserving decision until the entire department store question had been gone into.

Drug Sales an Issue.

A Washington department store raised the question when it informed the postoffice department that no heat could be furnished for a subpostoffice the government maintains at the store. Postoffice officials then got busy with Dr. Garfield.

The fact that department stores sell food and drugs, which come within the exemption list, raised another question that made it appear desirable to the fuel administration to consider the relation of department stores to the Monday closing order as an industry to be dealt with separately.

STORES HERE HOPEFUL.

In the absence of definite word, State street department stores continued to be hopeful yesterday that the Federal fuel administration will act favorably on their plea to operate six days a week on a restricted schedule rather than close down each Monday for ten weeks.

"We have had no word from Washington," said D. F. Kelly, representing the department stores. "We hope that our proposal may be given a favorable answer tomorrow."

Fending word from Washington as to the stores had decided whether or not salaries will be paid if the present order stands, Mr. Kelly said.

Workrooms to Close.

All manufacturing operations in the workrooms of Marshall Field & Co.'s retail store have ceased for the five day period, according to an announcement last night. A modified order permitting workrooms making alterations and repairs to remain open, was issued through State Administrator Williams yesterday and reads:

"Where are workrooms being operated for the purpose of making alterations, repairs, etc., in retail mercantile establishments, such workrooms may be operated during these five days."

"In the case of retail or wholesale establishments operating manufacturing departments in their sales buildings, such workrooms shall not be operated during these five days."

Retail dry goods and department stores outside of the loop will close Monday, according to a resolution adopted by the Retail Merchants' association (outside the loop) yesterday.

WOMEN ARE BUSY
IN RELIEF WORK
ON COAL NEEDS

Women chosen to act as coal advisers and official representatives of the fuel administration in the different wards of the city met with varying experiences when they took up their jobs and telephone receivers yesterday answered the calls for coal.

Mrs. Herman Landauer, chairman of the First ward, with headquarters at the Chicago Woman's club, reported at 12:30 that she had received only two calls, one of which was from a cleaning and dyeing expert in the loop.

In the other wards, however, the stories were different. It was soon demonstrated by the number of calls that the anxiety about the coal had become acute. Mrs. Ines Rodgers Deach, chairman in the Eighteenth ward, received her first call at ten minutes past 9, and from that time until late in the afternoon she was busy.

Many came in person for advice bringing their coal conveyances with them—sleds, wheelbarrows, and even baby carriages.

At the Bohemian Settlement house in the Tenth ward Miss Elizabeth Logan reported that twenty-five calls had been received at 2 p. m.

Glad Hill and many of the social settlements are keeping open house for the poor of the districts and the woman's committee of the Council of National Defense yesterday sent out a call for every woman in the city to remain in the city during the five "closing" days. The following have announced their intention of doing so:

Chicago Commons, 355 West Grand avenue; Hull House, 129 West Halsted street; 221 West House, 621 West Elm street; Henry Booth house, 701 West Fourteenth place; Northwestern University settlement, 1460 Augusta street; Glad Hill center, 1219 West Twenty-third street; University of Chicago settlement, 4830 Gross avenue; Fellowship house, 331 West Thirty-third street.

110 LOOP OFFICE
BUILDINGS TO BE
COLD ON MONDAYS

One hundred and ten large loop office buildings will be closed or operated with only enough heat to keep places from freezing next Monday and each Monday thereafter during the ensuing nine weeks, according to action taken yesterday by the Building Managers' association, which voted their "solid" cooperation in the carrying out of the United States fuel administration order.

An announcement was sent to all tenants, and those who may claim exemption to the city to five minutes past 9 o'clock this afternoon.

"The attention of exempted tenants is called to the condition," the letter says in conclusion, "that in large office buildings a few tenants who have heated the conservation of fuel is largely nullified. We therefore suggest patriotic cooperation in the saving of fuel except in cases of the most urgent necessity."

Automatic Sprinkler
Problems Considered

W. D. Matthews, chief surveyor of the Chicago board of underwriters, has sent suggestions regarding the care in the present fuel emergency of automatic sprinklers to all firms equipped with them in Chicago.

"In the extremity of your having to drain the sprinkler system owing to absence of fuel, this board invites you to communicate with this office before taking such action, that we may advise with you concerning the matter and, if necessary and possible, send an inspector to your premises," he says.

Oak Park Residents Asked to Help Clear Streets

W. F. Sargent, commissioner of public works of Oak Park, issued an appeal yesterday to every resident of Oak Park to shovel out the gutters and clear a way to the storm sewers so that danger of flooded basements and epidemics may be averted in event of a thaw.

A TON OF COAL CAUSE OF DEATH.

A case of coal poisoning was reported by Dr. Nicholas DeLoon, 630 North Sangamon street, who was stabbed last night, "The roommate, Gracie East, is better tonight. DeLoon died at the county hospital. Frank Farrell, 456 North Sangamon street, told the police he saw the man who was the cause of a ton of coal received yesterday.

STORES' PLEA FOR

Involved Issues May Win

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—After tentatively turning down a proposal of Chicago department stores to keep open on the ten fuelless Mondays, but maintain shorter hour schedules on other days, the fuel administration took up the matter for further consideration today when New York joined Chicago in the compromise proposal.

Dr. Garfield said his attention had not been called to the Chicago request, but that, without specific knowledge of the nature of the request, he was inclined to believe no exception could be made for the State street stores. A Washington department store raised the question when it informed the postoffice department that no heat could be furnished for a subpostoffice the government maintains at the store. Postoffice officials then got busy with Dr. Garfield.

The fact that department stores sell food and drugs, which come within the exemption list, raised another question that made it appear desirable to the fuel administration to consider the relation of department stores to the Monday closing order as an industry to be dealt with separately.

GRADE SCHOOLS
CLOSE TWO DAYS;
HIGHS TO OPEN

Night Classes Also Shut During the Shortage.

All of the public high schools and the Chicago Normal college will reopen Monday after a week's vacation caused by the fuel famine. The elementary schools will reopen on Wednesday.

President Edwin S. Davis of the school board and Supt. John D. Shoop made the announcement yesterday following a conference with officials of the fuel administration. Raymond E. Durham, county fuel administrator, promised assistance in obtaining coal for the schools.

There will be no evening schools or community centers on Monday or Tuesday. The evening schools may renew their activities on Wednesday.

"The extra delay in reopening the elementary schools," said Mr. Davis, "is due to the fact that the Cook county coal committee is unable to guarantee the switching of sufficient cars to convenient delivery points prior to that time."

ASKS MAYOR TO GET EXPERT FOR CITY LIBRARY

President Joseph E. Otis of the Civic federation yesterday sent the following letter to Mayor Thompson:

"In connection with the choice of a librarian of the Chicago Public Library to succeed Henry E. Legler, I am authorized by the executive committee of the Civic federation of Chicago, to urge upon your honor the desirability of securing for this position the best equipped and most capable expert obtainable, regardless of present residence."

The advantages of using the methods employed at the time when Chicago was so fortunate as to secure the service of Mr. Legler may be recalled. His power in effect to the Librarian of Congress, the Librarian of the Brooklyn Public Library, and the Librarian of the John C. Rea Library, constituting these experts a committee to conduct the examination.

"This step not only inspired the people of Chicago with confidence that every effort possible was being made to secure for them the best obtainable expert for this technical position, but, by the character of the men designated to act as the examining committee, advertised throughout the country that the test would be open to all upon such terms and conditions that experts might compete without loss of prestige and with assurance of fair play."

Unload Freight, Clear Off
Tracks, Plea to Public

In order to hasten the clearing of terminals, the Chicago Association of Commerce yesterday issued an appeal urging that the unloading of freight be continued in a normal manner on fuelless days.

Clubs announced yesterday that all bars would be closed Monday pursuant to the fuel administration's ruling that no room where liquor was sold could be heated. Club managers insisted that they knew no way of depriving the man who already had a stock in his locker from using it and passing it around to his friends who had been around to his friends by the fuel order.

WITHOUT HEAT,
APPEAL BOARDS
TO FALL BEHIND

Because they are all quartered in one building, the three district appeal boards will either have to take an enforced holiday for the next ten Mondays or work in their overcoats and mittens.

The appeal boards are all in the Merchants Loan and Trust building, 112 West Adams street, which is heated by the Commonwealth Edison company from its building across Clark street, which also is to be unheated.

The boards are in a position to demand heat, but inasmuch as they are the only ones in the building who can, and as it would be impracticable to heat one building for the benefit of three offices, it is probable that no work will be done on Mondays by the boards.

The names of thirty-two registrants in the Twenty-fifth ward were listed among the delinquents yesterday by local board No. 54 and turned over to the police. None of the thirty-two has returned his questionnaire and all have been placed in class 1.

Many persons continue to write to Col. Romyne at draft headquarters for information regarding the questionnaire. Because of lack of clerical help they are urged to call in person or phone. Some of the letters are from other cities, however, and John S. Burns, who is assisting Col. Romyne, is answering them as fast as he can. He now has a stack a foot high, and they keep coming.

Copies of 235 registration cards were stolen from the vault of one of the local exemption boards during the noon hour yesterday, and it is thought the theft was made either by somebody who expects to evade the draft by this means or who seeks to hamper the machinery of the draft. Triplicates were made of each registration card and new copies will be made from the original in the afternoon. One of the letters was forged on the Palmer bank of Danville, Ill. He is being returned to Chicago.

Seize User of Many Aliases
as a Defrauder of Banks

George W. Moran, believed to have used this and other names as aliases, who says he is a civil engineer, of 5641 Wayne avenue, Chicago, was arrested in Omaha last night by Pinkerton operatives on charges of defrauding various banks of more than $50,000 by the use of forged letters of credit. One of the letters was forged on the Palmer bank of Danville, Ill. He is being returned to Chicago.

DEATH SATCHEL
IN GIRL'S HANDS
PERILS SCORES

Held as I. W. W., Tries to Explode Dynamite in Station.

Carrying thirty-six sticks of high test dynamite and armed with an automatic pistol, the magazine loaded, a girl giving the name of Linda Jose, was arrested as she left a Panhandle train at the Union station yesterday. Government officials say they have conclusive proof that she was an emissary for I. W. W. plotters.

The girl, who says she is 18 years old, came on a train from Cleveland, which she boarded at Steubenville, O. When questioned she said she lived at Youngstown, O.

The girl is probably Laura Jose, an East Youngstown police character, according to a telegram from Youngstown last night. This wire said that the Jose girl recently vanished about the time of the theft of dynamite from a construction camp, and is thought to be identical with a woman now under surveillance.

Four other girls of about the same age are suspected of being involved in some sort of plot, according to the telegram, and are believed to be now on their way to California—possibly carrying smaller deadly burdens.

The Jose girl was placed under arrest by Frank Folsom and Tim O'Brien, station detectives. The girl fought desperately and bit Folsom on the thumb, the detectives say, and as the explosive was taken from her kicked at the grip.

Threat of Eternity.

Folsom pinioned her and as O'Brien swung the suitcase out of her reach the operatives say she cried:

"If I'd hit it we would all be in eternity."

Then the girl thrust a piece of paper into her mouth. The men forced the paper from her clenched teeth, removing it fragment by fragment. This contained a name and address, obviously in cipher, as it proved to be a vacant lot when operatives visited the place. Again, at the federal building, she tried to swallow a letter she carried.

This also was placed together. It contained the name of an indicted member of the I. W. W., whose name has figured often in seized I. W. W. literature and sabotage propaganda.

Porter Suspects Plot.

The honor of the capture primarily goes to a watchful Negro porter on the train. His suspicions were aroused when a man carried the suitcase on board the train with extraordinary care, refusing to let him touch it.

The porter reported his suspicions to the conductor. He caused the heat to be turned off in the car and then asked the passengers to go to the car ahead. The girl went, leaving the grip. As soon as she left it was opened and examined.

She said she was born in Italy and came to this country four years ago, entering at New Orleans and later living in Mount, La., near Vicksburg.

Reads Socialist Literature.

She refused to tell the name of her parents. She speaks good English. She converted fluently in Italian and showed a definite knowledge of French. She admitted that she came from northeastern Italy and "might have Austrian blood." She admitted that she was more or less familiar with the works of Carlo Tresca, Alexander Berkman, and Emma Goldman.

Charged with being an emissary of I. W. W. members she was removed to a cell. She was taken to the county jail.

Held by Lewis F. Mason, United States commissioner, under $20,000 bond, she was taken last night to Washington to be placed in the county jail there.

She Involves "Uncle."

"Who were you to deliver the dynamite to?" she was asked.

"My uncle," she said.

"Who gave it to you to carry?"

"Another uncle," she said.

"Do you know how to shoot an automatic pistol?" she was asked.

"If I couldn't shoot it I wouldn't be carrying it," she flashed back with spirit. "I learned down in Louisiana—but rabbits are a little too fast for me."

'WIN A VICTORY OR BOW DOWN TO WORLD TYRANNY'

Lloyd George Claims That Prussia Will Not Give Freedom.

men who want to grab everything and annex the earth and all of the heavenly firmament. I am talking about the moderate demands of the most pacific souls in this assembly. Try to catch that cheek at the Hindenburg bank! It will be returned dishonored. What ever terms are set forward by any pacifist orator in these lands, you will not get them cashed by Von Ludendorff, or the Kaiser, or any of these great magnates unless you have got the power to enforce them.

"I felt strongly that the time had come for restating our war aims and for restating them in a way that would carry with us the moderate rational opinion of this land and all other lands. Almost simultaneously the same idea came to President Wilson, and without any opportunity of previous consultation, because there was none.

"President Wilson and myself laid down what was substantially the same program of demands for the termination of this war.

"Accepted by Socialists. "How has that program been received? Throughout the whole of the allied countries it has been received with acclamation. There has hardly been a voice raised in criticism except from a few men who wish that I had made more extreme demands.

"The Socialists of France, the Socialists of Italy, as well as the Socialists of this country have in the main accepted them as fair general demands to put forward.

"What has been their reception in Germany? I beg you to consider this, especially those who think that we are responsible for perpetuating this horror. I would not have this war for one second on my soul if I could stop it honorably. The only enemy comment has been: 'Behold, how English is weakening! Go on and they will come down.'

"Met by German Scoffs. "Again, there has been no response from any man in any position in Germany that indicates a desire on the part of the ruling powers in that land to approach the problem in a spirit of equity.

"We demanded the restoration of Belgium. Is there one man here who would make peace without the complete restoration of Belgium and reparation for its wrongs?"

"Cries of 'No!'"

"What is the answer from Germany?" Mr. Lloyd George continued. "There has been only one answer, and it came from Von Tirpitz's soul—'Never!'"

"There was a demand for the reconsideration of the wrongs of Alsace-Lorraine. What is the answer from Germany?" "Never!"

"When I suggested that Mesopotamia and Palestine should never be restored to the tyranny of the Turk, what was the answer of Germany? 'We will go on until they are restored!'"

"German Civilians Hushed. "Is there a single condition laid down by you in your aims to which you have had any response from anybody in Germany who has any authority to speak. Not one. I will tell you another fact, which is very significant. There has been no civilian answer at all."

"There have been conferences, hurriedly called together. Gen. von Hindenburg and Von Ludendorff were brought back from their armies in a great hurry to Berlin, but Herr von Kuehlmann has not been allowed to speak. Why? If it means anything, it means this: That the Prussian military power is dominant and the answer which is to be given to civilization is an answer which will be given from the cannon's mouth. Do not let us harbor any delusions.

"Fight Hard or Quit. "You might as well stop fighting unless you are going to do it well. If you are not going to do it with all your might it is real murder to the gallant fellows who have stood there for three years.

"You either have got to put your whole strength into it or just do what is done in the Russian army and tell those brave fellows that they can go home whenever they like and no one will stop them.

"Believe me, if there are men who say they will not go into the trenches then the men who are in the trenches have a right to say: 'Neither will we remain here.'"

"Suppose our men should leave the trenches—would that end the war? Yes, it would; but what sort of an end? When the Russians ceased fighting and talked ideals and principles with the German army did the German army retreat? No. They took Riga and the islands. Fraternization did not prevent their marching forward. If Petrograd had been nearer, would they have taken it also.

"All Democracy at Stake. "The channel ports are not so far from the fighting line, and unless we are prepared to stand up with the whole might of people who are dominating Germany now, and will dominate the world tomorrow if we allow them, we will find that Great Britain and the British democracy, the French democracy, and the democracy of Europe will be at the mercy of the most cruel military autocracy the world has ever seen.

"What sort of terms do you think we would get from Gen. von Hindenburg if we said to him, 'We want you to clear out of Belgium? He would say in his heart, 'You cannot turn me out of Belgium with trade union resolutions.'"

"But I will tell you the answer you can give him. 'We can and will turn you out of Belgium with trade union guns and trade unionists behind them.' They have broken his line already, and if we endure with the spirit of our fa-

OFFICIAL WAR REPORTS

ITALIAN FRONT

ITALIAN. ROME, Jan. 18.—Along the whole of the front there have been brief artillery actions and limited patrol activity. Our artillery made concentrations of fire on the reverse of Col Caprile and Col Della Beretta. The enemy's fire, which was more lively against the southeastern slopes of Montello, was answered by British batteries, which shelled moving troops between Mina and Canariggio.

On the southern slopes of Sasso Rosso and on the northern slopes of Monte Solanolo enemy patrols were driven back with hand grenades.

During the actions of Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday in the Asolone area and east of Capo Sile a total of thirteen officers and 474 men and eighteen machine guns and two bomb throwers were captured.

FRENCH FRONT

FRENCH. PARIS, Jan. 18.—The fire scattered enemy detachments which were attempting to reach our lines in the thens and the spirit that has made the greatness of this land its power, its prestige and its honor will be able to carry to conviction, to carry to triumph, to carry to reality, to carry as an essential part of the story of this world's great aim that you in your language, that the governments in its language, and President Wilson in his noble language have been proclaiming in the last few days has over-ruled the failure of its adherents to be ready to do for it.

"We are fighting now against privilege claimed by a military caste. Democracy, if it means anything, must mean that the people of all classes, all sections, all grades, and all professions must merge their privileges and their rights in common stock."

A voice: "And wealth?" "Certainly," replied the premier.

No Half Way Victory. "If any man standing in my place can find an honorable, equitable, and just way out of this situation without letting him tell me," the premier continued. "My own conviction is this: The people either must go on or go under."

A great number of questions were put to the premier by the delegates regarding the advisability of entering into peace negotiations or the permitting of a conference at Stockholm. Mr. Lloyd George, in reply, said: "I am for peace at her own price, but that is not a price that we are prepared to pay. The moment the Germans show a disposition to negotiate a peace on equitable terms and they are the terms the Labor party itself has, in substance, adopted—there will be no reluctance to enter into peace negotiations."

The premier's objection to a conference at Stockholm or elsewhere was that delegates of the German government would be chosen. A delegate here interjected: "Not necessarily."

Peril in Early Conference. Mr. Lloyd George said that all the allies, including America, had agreed that negotiations could be conducted only between representatives of the respective governments and that negotiations could not be conducted between sections of the peoples.

He admitted the difficulty of the problem in deciding the proper moment when it would be desirable to enter into a peace conference.

Yo may enter it one moment and find that you have put your head into a noose," Mr. Lloyd George observed. "My personal opinion is that it is not desirable to enter a conference unless there is a fair chance of emerging with a satisfactory settlement."

I am firmly convinced from the attitude of the leaders of the German government that such a conference now would not result in anything like an equitable understanding. Therefore it would aggravate instead of improving the matter."

Discusses Freedom of Sea. Replying to a suggestion that the Socialists might override the government in Germany if a conference were allowed, the premier pointed out that Dr. Karl Liebknecht has been jailed and that is what would happen to Herr Scheidemann if he attempted "to cash peace checks" in Germany.

A delegate inquired whether President Wilson's reference to the freedom of the seas in his speech agreed with the views of the British government. Mr. Lloyd George replied:

I wish to know what freedom of the seas means? Does it mean freedom for submarines and does it mean starvation for this country? After all, we are in a different position from America or Germany, or France or any other continental country. We are islands. We must scrutinize with the greatest care any proposal which might impair our ability to protect our lines of communication across the seas."

As to Compulsory Service. The premier was asked whether he would give an undertaking that, in the event of a satisfactory peace settlement, compulsory military service in Great Britain would immediately be withdrawn. The premier replied:

"That is my hope and what we are fighting for, but it must be stopped in other countries, otherwise you cannot stop it here. We must defend ourselves here and put an end to militarism throughout the world."

SENATE PASSES SHIPYARD ZONE, HOUSING BILLS

Wadsworth Warns of Peril in Having Too Many Conflicting Bosses.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—[Special.]—The lack of systematic management of war activities and the need of centralized control in the administration were pointed out by Senator Wadsworth today in a speech on the shipyard employees' housing bill, which was passed by the senate.

The bill empowering the president to create military zones around ship yards also was passed.

The bill to lease, regulation, or condemn houses for ship yard workmen carries with it a provision for an appropriation of $50,000,000.

"I am under the impression," Mr. Wadsworth said, "that this measure of housing will before this war is many months older, become one of the most important problems confronting the government."

Doing Work Piecemeal. "We are going at this question piecemeal," the senator said. "Before we get through we will have to view this housing problem as it applies to the men and women who work in munitions factories. We will have to supply housing facilities for a largely increased number of workmen in the neighborhood of the great steel mills engaged in the manufacture of supplies for the army and navy. This bill applies only to the ship building problem."

Housing Question Looms. Senator Wadsworth said the navy department is preparing to build a power factory in West Virginia and the war department one in Tennessee.

"Now are we going to leave that housing problem to the war department and the navy department and other similar problems elsewhere to the shipping board?" he asked. "Sooner or later we must centralize this matter under one head."

Wilson Peace Aims Impress New Party in Munich

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 18.—The Tagliche Rundschau of Berlin learns from Munich that a new political party has been formed there, under the name of "the free committee" and that it has sent a telegram to the reichstag saying: "Notwithstanding its partiality, President Wilson's recent message contains a practical basis for the inauguration of negotiations toward a general peace."

ROCK ISLAND SUNDAY SUBURBAN SERVICE WILL BE EFFECTIVE MONDAY.

CLABAUGH STORY OF SPIES STARTS PATRIOTIC DRIVE

Conference Will Plan the Education of Aliens.

Hinton G. Clabaugh, chief of the Chicago bureau of investigation of the department of justice, will tell about wartime spies, enemy intrigue, and the underground system that disseminates anti-American propaganda among soldiers and citizens in an address to be delivered this afternoon at the Blackstone hotel.

The occasion is a conference of educators, government officials, industrial heads, civic leaders, and representatives of charitable and settlement organizations to map plans for a nationwide movement for a 100 per cent Americanism.

Loyalty of Aliens Aim. A special effort will be made to enlist the sympathy and loyalty of aliens. The meeting has been arranged by Frank L. Mather, organizer for the bureau of naturalization of the department of labor.

Other speakers will be Merton A. Sturges, chief naturalization examiner for the bureau in Chicago; former President John W. O'Leary of the Chicago Association of Commerce, and Miss Margaret Haley and other members of the Chicago Teachers' federation.

18,000 Are Instructed. "Seventeen hundred cities and towns throughout the United States have been conducting classes in citizenship in the last year," said Mr. Mather in discussing the purposes of the conference. "In Chicago we have had wonderful success. Figures show 18,000 persons were instructed in citizenship. We will increase that by 50,000 this year."

Enemy influences among the foreign born have made rapid strides in the past. Hence the opposition to the selective draft found in the early days of the war last year. We expect to overcome that."

The New Freedom society, composed of citizens of Hungarian birth, will hold a patriotic mass meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Colonial theater.

LABOR CRISIS IN PACKING PLANTS PUT TO WILSON

Chicago Leaders Ask the U. S. to Seize Industry if Mediation Fails.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—Settlement of differences between the meat packers and their union employees was undertaken tonight by President Wilson's special labor commission, headed by Secretary Wilson, after representatives of the men had submitted their case to the president in a two hour conference at the White House.

Spokesmen for the unions pictured a critical situation in all of the great packing centers and asked that the government interfere and if necessary take over the operation of the plants. The president said mediation would be tried first before considering alternatives.

Gompers with Party. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, accompanied the labor delegation, which was headed by John Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago federation, and E. N. Nockels, secretary. Secretary Baker, as chairman of the Council of National Defense, and Secretary Wilson were called into the conference.

The president was told that the packers had repudiated a mediation agreement to settle questions of wages and working conditions and were discharging union men in groups, apparently with the purpose of bringing on a strike. Of the thousands employed in the plants, the union men said, 60 per cent are foreigners without union affiliations and of whose loyalty stand-ards no one can judge.

Workers Will Enlist. If the government takes over the plants, Mr. Fitzpatrick said, the union men are ready to enlist as the first members of America's industrial army, to guarantee full headed equipment for every packing plant, work in continuous shifts if necessary, and leave all questions of wages, hours, and working conditions to the president or the person to whom he might delegate the duty.

If the nation's extremity should be reached, he said, the men would work naked in the factory with barely enough sustenance to keep strength in their bodies.

The president's committee will arrange as soon as possible for meetings with representatives of the employers and of the men. Its members, who recently returned from an investigating and mediating tour of the west, are Secretary Wilson, J. L. Spangler, J. H. Walker, and Felix Walker.

Statement by Gompers. After the conference Mr. Gompers made this statement: "The attitude of the packers toward their employees is intolerable. The employees are in a state of unrest, and the union heads feel scarcely able to control the situation. They cannot stand the brutality handed out to them, low pay, and long hours. "We will work hand in hand with the president to help relieve the situation, and if it cannot be done by mediation we ask that the government take over the packing plants. "The packers are discharging groups of men and trying to provoke a strike. The situation is critical. "The president listened with attention and was sympathetic. He said he would first place the matter into the hands of his mediation committee. If this does not bring action, the only alternative would be to consider government control."

Denial from Packers. Levy Mayer, James G. Condon, and Carl Mayer, counsel for the Chicago packers, issued this statement when they heard of the White House conference: "It is almost impossible to believe that the labor officials can so recklessly have stated to the president that our clients, the packers, have brazenly repudiated the agreement which was made by the packers with the president's mediation commission. The statement is untrue. The packers have faithfully endeavored to fully comply with the agreement in every particular, and this the president and the mediation commission will promptly discover when they ascertain the facts."

KNOW SHOVELERS ASKED. Members of the Oakland Business Men's association have sent out a request for all able bodied men to join in a snow shoveling campaign in the neighborhood on Monday in the hope of clearing the district.

WHOLE UNITS OF AUSTRIA TROOPS REPORTED SHOT

Disaffection of German Soldiers Also Said to Be Spreading.

BY JOSEPH SHAPLEN.

PETROGRAD, Jan. 18.—Whole companies of Austrian troops have been ordered shot for their sympathy with Russian Socialist views, according to reports reaching here today.

Disaffection against their military masters is spreading among German troops also.

The German government is making strenuous efforts to stop the spread of Russian propaganda and of sympathy with Russian beliefs.

Foreign Minister Trotsky himself telegraphed from Brest-Litovsk today that the German government was "liberally garbling reports of the peace negotiations." Presumably this is in line with the Teutonic effort to mislead public opinion in the central powers.

Strikes in Austria. LONDON, Jan. 18.—Serious strikes, accompanied by rioting, have taken place at Vienna and in other cities throughout Austria, according to news agency telegrams from Zurich and other points in Switzerland.

Troubles, it is asserted, are due to the prolongation of the peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk, the continuance of the reduced bread rations—much the former allotment—and police measures against meetings of the workers.

Fear Situation in Bohemia. It appears that the Austrian authorities are anxious regarding the situation at Prague, Bohemia, as the civil governor has been replaced by a military governor.

The Vienna correspondent of the Munich Neueste Nachrichten says reports of an Austrian cabinet crisis are well founded. Dr. von Seidler, the premier, is opposed not only by the Czechs and the south Slavs, it is asserted, but also by the Socialists, who like the rest, are chafing under the food difficulties, while the German troops are hostile owing to the premier's alleged weak attitude towards the Czechs and south Slavs.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION MEETING. War emergency instruction, boys and farm child labor and vocational guidance will be discussed by the Vocational Education Association in the Morrison hotel on Jan. 21, 22, and 23.

WAR BETWEEN ROUMANIA AND RUSSIANS NEAR

Bolsheviki Send Two Hour
Ultimatum; Petrograd
Under Martial Law.

PETROGRAD, Jan. 18.—A dangerous stage has arisen in the relations between Roumania and the Bolsheviki.

A two hours ultimatum has been sent to the Roumanian military authorities by the revolutionary committee of the city, the Russian army demanding free passage of Russian troops through Jassy, the temporary capital of Rou-mania.

Petrograd was declared under martial law today by the Bolshevik safety commission.

"All attempts at a revolt are to be vigorously suppressed," the decree declared. The order was issued shortly before the first session of the constituent assembly was to be called to order.

Capture 1,500 Kaledones Officers.
Capture of 1,500 Kaledones officers near Kharkoff was announced today.

The Bolsheviki troops have occupied the towns of Voroshila, Padolsk, and Park in the Chernigov district.

The executive committee of the workmen's and soldiers' delegates determined today to put before the constituent assembly the decree passed by the council of commissioners calling for the repudiation of foreign debts and the invalidating of all state loans made by the "governments of Russian land owners and of the Russian bourgeoisie." The decree is effective from Dec. 1 last.

The Vechernia Vremia, which resumed publication this afternoon for the first time since the Bolshevik revolution, says Alexander P. Kerenky now in Sweden.

Provisions of Decree.
The provisions of the decree include:
The annulment of all state loans,
on which it is declared the December
coupons shall not be paid.

The annulment of all guarantees given by the government for the payment of open loans advanced by institutions and companies.

The annulment, without exception,
of all foreign loans.

That short term bond issues of the state treasury, are valid, but that no interest on them shall be paid.

That persons in moderate circumstances who possess interior loans to a value not exceeding 10,000 rubles lose value shall receive from the state a life long annuity equal to the interest on the securities.

That citizens possessing such annuities securities for a sum exceeding 10,000 rubles shall not receive any compensation whatsoever.

That deposits in state savings banks and interest on them shall be decreed retroactive.

It is provided also that special commissions shall be appointed to decide the financial status of citizens. These commissions to be empowered to annul completely all savings not obtained by means of labor.

Reach Ukrainian Peace Bash.
BERLIN, Jan. 18.—[Via London.]—
On the resumption of the peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk on Wednesday it was officially stated today, a settlement in principle of the questions concerning the future political relations of the central powers and the Ukrainians was reached during a private meeting with the Ukrainian delegates.

After an address to the peace delegates, Leon Trotsky, Bolshevik foreign minister of the Russians, agreed to a continuation of the discussions.

The German foreign secretary, Dr.
von Kuehlmann, addressed the delegates after M. Trotsky and moved that they should begin discussion in a business like manner of four points proposed by the Russian delegation. To this M. Trotsky agreed. The next sitting was fixed for the following day.

Calls Separate Peace Certain.
VIENNA, Jan. 18.—Russia and the central empires will agree on a separate peace based on the Austro-German reply to Brest-Litovsk on Wednesday.
Dr. Minister of Agriculture Sedler held the budget commission of the reichstag, it was officially announced today.

He said negotiations for a territorial compromise were progressing.

Expect Roumanians to Fight.
LONDON, Jan. 18.—The latest threat of the Bolsheviki to cause the arrest of the Roumanian royal family has created no surprise among the Roumanian authorities in London.

The Roumanian army has refrained from armed conflict with the Bolsheviki, but, it is declared, will not tolerate any plans on Roumanian soil against the royal family or the Roumanian people.

A Russian wireless message picked up here today instructed all people's committees throughout the land to "take the most drastic measures" to suppress anarchy. The message recounted disorders and excesses at railway stations, declared the railways were in the hands of mobs, and that cars were looted.

"The start of anarchy had entirely disorganized the transport, creating indiscreet sufferings," the wireless warned.

Owing to severe weather conditions of unusual duration, which interfered with the movement of food supply, the Chicago railroads will keep their freight houses and train tracks
open Monday, January 21, 1918, in order to facilitate the handling of inbound freight and also such outboard freight as may be offered, not affected by existing embargoes.

SIGNS DECREE SELLING CUBA SUGAR TO U. S.

HAVANA, Jan. 18.—President Men-cal today placed his signature to contracts providing for the sale of the Cuban sugar crop to the United States.

The contract binds Cuba to send 2,500,000 tons of sugar to the United States for proportional distribution among the allied nations.

A presidential decree signed today fixes the price of sugar at 4.93 cents, delivered in the ports of New York and Philadelphia. Higher prices are to rule if it is disembarked at other American ports. For southern Europe the price is to be 4.55 cents and for northern Europe 4.60 cents.

Want a Securities Board
for Period of the War

New York, Jan. 18.—Creation of a federal "securities authorization board," which "shall be empowered to approve or disapprove the issuance of corporate, state, and municipal securities for the period of the war," under constitutional limitations, was recom-
ended in a report adopted by the board of directors of the Investment Bankers' Association of America at a meeting here today.

The report was presented by a special committee appointed at the association's last annual meeting to consider the question of "conservation of loanable capital in the United States for the period of the war."

VARIETY MARKS BILL OF 'TRIBUNE' SUNDAY CONCERT

Glenn Dillard Gunn, conductor of the American Symphony Orchestra, has made up a varied program for tomorrow's concert in the Studebaker theater—the second in the special series of three which that organization is giving under the auspices of The Tribune.

The series will be followed by one in the public schools, arranged by The Tribune, the board of education, and the Civic Music association.
Tomorrow's concert, which starts at 8 o'clock, will have two novelties in Chicago—the arrangement for concert purposes of Massenet's "Arlene" in music and Rostetter's "King Robert of Sloilo." Mr. Cole, a Chicago composer, is in this week's program of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, also. Longfellow's poem will be read by Mrs. Sterling Doak-Rice, while Mr. Gunn and his men play the symphonic accompaniment.

Dvorak's symphony of American inspiration, called "From the New World," and Saint-Saens' symphonic poem, "Phaeton," are the principal numbers for the orchestra apart from the novelties. Mrs. Hanna Butler, soprano, will sing Bishop's "The Lark Now Leaves His Watery Nest," and the "Debut le jour" aria from Charpentier's "Louise." Robert MacDonald, a Chicago pianist, who is among the enlisted men at Great Lakes, will come in to play Moszkowski's concerto.

OPERA BENEFIT A RECORD NIGHT AT AUDITORIUM

Society Gives $14,000 for Italian and French
Children.

Chicago's society workers in the cause of war charities combined last night with the forces of the Chicago Opera to make both brilliant and successful the gala event in aid of the French and Italian orphans. That it was successful is indicated by the figures given out at 11 o'clock by Lieut.
J. Allen Haines, who said that the net receipts would not fall under $14,000.
It is interesting to add that this sum is in excess of the gross receipts of any performance of the opera in the Chicago season of ten weeks.

Mary Garden, in an act from "Tosca," and Rosa Raisa, leading a huge chorus through Verdi's festival "Hymn of the Nations" were among last night's great stars. Genevieve Vix was another.
Crimt, a fourth; Stracclari, too, took part. Campanini, who hasn't touched his baton since the day following the bomb explosion in the Auditorium, came out of his box at the beginning of the second part to direct "The Star-Spangled Banner." He was given great

Real Love Stories

The Really, Truly Lovers.

It began nine or ten years ago in the high school of one of Chicago's prettiest suburbs. Their names are not John and Mary, therefore in this story they shall be called as, for they are "sure enough, really truly persons," as the children say.

They studied together in school, and through the winters they danced and skated. And in the summer vacations they spent many happy hours picnicking and swimming. At last, when school days were over, they passed out into life with the certainty that they cared very much for each other.

But there was a shadow on their happiness. Mary's parents had always looked down on John's because, although quite well to do, they were unlearned, and now they thought that the youthful friendship was to be stamped out.

John was a splendid young chap, and his pride, strong in him, rose in revolt. He obtained a position in a busy shipyard in Seattle and a few days later said good-by. It was a hurried departure; there seemed to be nothing they could say, yet, as he turned to go, Mary said: "Will you write—once in a while?"

"No," he said. "But as soon as I can I'm coming back, and if you can look at me as you do now all the parents in the world won't make any difference." That was six years ago and a year ago John came back. When he telephoned her mother told him she was attending a dinner dance at a country club. John got in touch with a mutual friend, who was also a member of the club, and an hour later they were cordially greeting old friends. Among them, a little way apart, stood Mary.

And this is what he said to her: "There's a charming little bungalow waiting for some one who is not afraid

THIS IS PORKLESS DAY!

The Proteins.

And now a great number of people want to know all about proteins, and carbohydrates, and fats, and mineral matter in foods, and all in a minute. Suddenly they have come to realize that the only way to eat in the most economical and safe fashion is to know about these things. And quackery is getting in big ticks about this time! The food quack in the last five years has been making hay, gathering reeds, striking while the iron is hot, etc.

Farmers' Bulletin No. 23, on "The Chemical Composition of American Food Materials," was printed some time back of 1899. I have a revised edition of it with that date. Today people who know little or nothing about food are using that manual to make entertaining and distasteful little diagrams to represent proteins, fats, carbohydrates, and mineral matter (then called "ash") in various graphic fashions. That, too, is an old idea. Generally, but not always, long horizontal bars are used to represent different foods, and these are divided up to show how much water, how much fat, how much protein, etc., the foods represented contain.

Bulletin 23 is still standard, and it is much better to send directly to the superintendent of documents, Washington, D. C., enclosing 10 cents for this, than to use any derivatives from it whatsoever. There is a preface telling how to use it, and the last column of figures on every page gives the number of calories in each of the foods under the heading, "Fuel Value Per Pound."

A calorie is just a measure of our physiological fuel. There is no need of being confused about a calorie than in being confused about an inch, an hour, or a mile, which are much more arbitrary measures.

Miss Katherine Blunt, in talking to a club about proteins the other day, said that today people were less afraid of the word calories than of the word protein. After an important introduction to the subject, she told her listeners how they could get the two or three ounces of protein which they needed for each day's ration. Two or three ounces in the nearest statement that can be made, because the large protein requires more and the small less, but this allowance covers the need approximately. She pointed out that it took a knowledge of the composition of foods to have this mean anything, and then gave the following list as containing each one-half ounce of protein, a list which will show to many people that if anything they are getting all the protein per day they need, if not more:

There is one-half ounce of protein in two eggs, or in a pint of milk, or two ounces of cottage cheese, or two ounces of any ordinary American cheese, or two ounces of dry fish, or in three ounces of uncooked oatmeal (two and a fourth ounces when cooked), or in four ounces of uncooked macaroni, or in five and one-half ounces of bread, or two and one-half ounces of meat, or dried beans uncooked. Two and a half ounces of beans uncooked, Miss Blunt said, made a cup and a half when cooked.

The food given as the nearest pure protein was cottage cheese, and one-half ounce of protein from this source—that is, a two ounce portion—was shown to be the least expensive. White of egg is commonly given as approximately pure protein, but it contains more water than does cottage cheese. The two ounces of cottage cheese was the only amount of any of these foods that represented a portion smaller than that commonly served.

All these foods have their well known equivalents, so that it would require no great intelligence to follow arbitrarily this list in an effort to get an adequate supply of protein per day. And for anybody who will not trouble to go into the pros and cons of the subject, something like this ought to be their salvation in the protein matter. Most of us get too much.

My uncle writes from England that his little "Babe" has a "dugout" in the yard and every night she puts her dollies there for safe keeping in case of air raids. He said one night as she was taking her dolls out he heard her talking to them, and this is what she said: "We know what we'd like to do to him [meaning the kaiser], but we ain't big enough yet, are we?"

C. S. C.

Bobby, with his mother and little friend, was at a movie. Bobby had some popcorn, which he passed to his friend, who took a generous portion. After waiting a few moments, apparently for his friend, Bobby said, "Thank you."

"Bobby, you shouldn't say that; it was the little boy's place to say 'Thank you!'"

"Well, I know it, but somebody had to say it."

My nurse noticed an inflammation in one corner of little daughter's eye and wondered what caused it. "The little girl said, 'Why? I guess a little bit of sleep got caught under the lid.'"

WAS IT YOU?

You remember the mornings of the week of the big storm, from which dates henceforth shall be dated? "Member particularly one morning when the mercury was flirting foolishly with not even and lovely 21, but cold and biting 20 below? Well, that same morning, when no self-respecting Eskimo would leave his hut without first swathing his ears and his feet in things warm and cheering, would you believe it, a woman boarded the elevated at the same station as I wearing an airy straw hat and the flimsiest kind of white glove kid shoes.

In extension of the circumstances, let me say both hat and shoes were brand and shiny new! The psychology of which we women will better understand than our men citizen! The long fur coat failed to create an illusion of warmth.

And just as luck would have it, it was the morning the triumph of the suffrage amendment was headlined in our papers!

"Har, Har!" guffawed one of the heavy males who were clattering up the conductor's platform. "Gosh! It does beat all how they do it! Now, what in the Sam Hill would a woman like that do with a vote? Har, Har! Jimmy Christian!"

Between us gals, now, who can give one good answer to this enigma of summer outfitting our heads and feet and winter housing the rest of us.

OLD DOC QUACKS FIGHT ON STAND TO KEEP LICENSE

State Board Hears Their Stories and Those of Investigator.

Before a body of physicians representing the state of Illinois, Chicago quack doctors recently exposed by THIS TRIBUNE fought hard yesterday to save their licenses.

Hodgens, Burgess, Ross, Flint, long enduring medical charlatans, appeared before the state examining committee of medical practitioners at the command of Francis W. Shephardson, director of the department of registration and education, to show, if able, why they should longer be permitted to practice medicine in Illinois.

Guarded by legal talent, the quacks appeared one by one before the committee during an all day session.

Hear Victim's Story.
A TRIBUNE investigator presented to the committee, in the presence of the quacks and their lawyers, his experiences when he went recently from one to the other of the offices seeking their "healings." The committee listened with interest at the stories of how the sick quacks and their "come on" office assistants "talk the patient sick" and then represent to him that he is suffering from the elusive neurasthenia and other horrors.

All the quacks were given an opportunity to tell their versions of these experiences and their attorneys were allowed to cross question THIS TRIBUNE reporter.

Hodgens Was Wise, He Says.

Hodgens was first to be called before the committee. To his story of the reporter's visit to his offices he added: "I knew this man was an investigator when he came to my office. He told me he was a machinist helper and I made it a point to take particular notice of his hand. I saw they were white, and I know those are not the hands of a man who works around a machine shop."

"Regarding the doctor's statement about my white hand," the reporter said, "I wish to inform the committee that I was in the press room just before going to Dr. Hodgson's office, and that considerable printers' ink was under my finger nails and on my hands."

Hodgens looked embarrassed at this, but his attorney could not repress a smile.

Diagnosis from Talk.

Burgess also appeared before the committee with an attorney. In answer to the reporter's statement Burgess declared the reporter was a "neurasthenic."

"Did you make any examination of this man?" Burgess was asked.

"No," Burgess answered. "He told me he was sick and I made my diagnosis from what he told me."

Ross made no extensive denial of the reporter's testimony, but in telling his version of the reporter's visit.

Flint after listening to the reporter's version of his visit to the Flint office, started to admit the truth of the reporter's charges.

"Well," he started, "I think the reporter has told you fairly what—"

But here his attorney stopped him and admonished him to tell "what you know happened and never mind what he says."

With Dr. Shephardson on the committee were Drs. John A. Robison, former head of the state board of health; G. M. Cushing and W. L. Noble of Chicago; Carl E. Black of Jacksonville, Ill.; W. L. Taylor of Springfield; and F. C. Dodd, superintendent of registration for Illinois.

DENEEN LEADERS ACCEPT PLAN FOR G. O. P. HARMONY

Will Name Fourth of Men on the Republican Ticket.

The Deneen men on the Republican county committee yesterday consented to sit in on the proposed harmony slate for the Republican county ticket, and will participate in the full meeting of the county committee Monday afternoon, when operations will open on the basis of the suggested triple sided peace agreement.

The terms are that 25 per cent of the nominations for the major offices, 25 per cent of the nominations for the minor offices, and 25 per cent each of the Municipal court judges and county commissioners shall be allotted to the Deneen committee and the remaining 75 per cent shall be divided proportionately between the Brundage and the city hall factions. The proviso is that each ward committeeman may act as he pleases with respect to the United States senatorship.

West Speaks for Faction.
Roy O. West delivered the answer of the Deneen forces to the proposal that was advanced by the ways and means committee, at the session of the committee at county headquarters in the afternoon. That the Deneen men were ready to do business and that they had abandoned, practically, their idea of running an independent primary ticket, headed by the name of Charles S. Deneen for senator, was a surprise.

Mr. West said after emerging from the session: "We are for harmony. The Deneen men will participate in the full committee session Monday afternoon, and answer every roll call. We are for peace, and we will go along with the committee program as long as we are treated fairly and squarely and in accordance with the terms that have been suggested."

The ways and means committee, after the Deneen reply had been received, determined to put it up to the full committee, as to how the slate making shall proceed. The full committee will say Monday, on a roll call, whether the actual ticket construction shall be made by the ways and means committee as it now exists, or whether there shall be an entirely new committee created for that specific duty.

Speculate About Senator.

Speculation among Republican politicians was directed immediately to the senatorship, the question being asked on all hands if the determination of the eight Deneen committeemen to sit in with the Brundage and Thompson factions in a county slate agreement carried with it an indication that Mr. Deneen does not intend to enter the race for United States senator.

FAKERS USE NAME OF MCUTCHEON TO OBTAIN FUNDS

Sombody is projecting a fake "cartoonists' convention" in Chicago, and is using the name of John T. McCutcheon of THIS TRIBUNE in getting checks and cash for an alleged banquet that is supposed to be part of the entertainment of the visiting cartoonists. No such convention is in prospect and Mr. McCutcheon has nothing whatever to do with any solicitation of funds.

The booster or grafter, or whatever he is, that is engineering the campaign for cash telephoned yesterday to Milton Birkenstein of S. Birkenstein & Sons, 409 West Ontario street, and said he was John T. McCutcheon and asked for a check to assist in paying for the cartoonists' banquet. The voice said the check should be made payable to "G. W. Dixon" and that "Mr. Dixon" would call for it. A check for $25 was made out and "Mr. Dixon" called and received the check.

Mr. Birkenstein learned last night that Mr. McCutcheon's name had been used fraudulently.
